The Anne E. Parker Memorial
RCS Scholarship Application
2022 - 2023

Application Due Date: March 24, 2023

Purpose: The Rappahannock Choral Society, Inc. will present two Anne E. Parker Memorial Scholarship in the amount of $1000 and $500, to qualified graduating high school seniors who plan to pursue a post high school music education.

Brief Background of Rappahannock Choral Society (RCS), Inc.

The RCS Inc. was incorporated in October 2010 and is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) corporation with Public Charity status. We are Partners in Education with Spotsylvania County Schools. Our mission is to provide quality, enjoyable musical entertainment and education through concerts and selected singing opportunities in our regional community in coordination with other community groups for the benefit of all citizens. At each of our concerts, several high school students help support our efforts. Student participation has been and will be a continuing tradition in support of our four scheduled concerts each year. Students have free admission at all concerts.

Applicant Eligibility

The applicant must be a senior graduating from a Spotsylvania County High School who wishes to further their music education. This includes but is not limited to music education, musical theater, and performance.

Student Application Requirements
